

Curriculum Map

	Module 1	Module 2	Module 3	Module 4	Module 5	Module 6
ASDAN Beliefs and Values	Values, Beliefs and Decision Making	Environment	Crime and Punishment	Peace and Conflict	Beliefs and Practice	Inspiration
Knowledge and content	Understand the concepts of uniqueness, personal qualities and making a positive contribution. Understand the concepts of positive and negative peer pressure. Describe how people can behave in a 'good' way and recognise positive qualities in others. Understand that moral decisions are complex and that	Recognise that we all affect the environment Understand global warming and its importance Understand how human activity contributes to global warming Understand that there is a huge amount of natural energy that we can use Understand that people with similar views form	Understand why rules and laws are important to create a just and fair society Recognise that bullying happens in many forms and it is harmful to everyone especially the victim Recognise that there are many reasons for crime, which often have their roots in poverty Understand that there are different punishments for different crimes	Understand that everyone has a part to play in the promotion of peace in society Understand that some people are pacifists and are opposed to war. Understand that some people believe war may be necessary to protect people and their freedom Understand that the armed forces exist to protect & ensure peace.	Gathering of people with a common aim can be similar to a religious gathering Places of worship in all religions are special and can be described as sacred. Pilgrimage is a religious journey that people take to learn more about their faith Religious and secular communities have their own ceremonies to	Understand what inspiration means and that it can come from many sources. People can be influenced by different things Appreciate that the wonder and awe of nature inspires many people Religion inspires many people To understand that inspiration is not just a religious experience and that people may be

Curriculum Map

	choices have consequences People have religious and non religious beliefs, and that view affects moral decisions. Understand multiculturalism, equality, diversity	environmental action groups Develop an interest and expertise in one area concerning the environment Appreciate that all living creature have rights	Describe effective alternatives to prison Show an understanding of prejudice and discrimination Understand what persecution means and why people might be prosecuted	The decision to go to war is complex and people have different views and out war and conflict. Understand that weapons of mass destruction have the capacity to cause devastation	mark rites of passage. Statements of beliefs are often called creeds. Different religions understand and portray God in different ways. Religions celebrate their own festivals.	inspired by other things
--	---	---	---	---	--	---------------------------------